Dear Sister Roberts:

It was a genuine pleasure to make your acquaintance during our recent evangelistic campaign in Hapeville. Your encouraging words were a great inspiration to me throughout the week. I deeply appreciated the very kind note that you wrote me at the conclusion of our effort.

I heard many complimentary things about you from Brother Bays and others through the week. I know that you and your family provide a great deal of support to the work at North Avenue.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
